Re: RFQ/RFP No. 878 – Legal Services

Dear Ms. Cerbo:

Thank you for your letter of November 5, 2010. In accordance with the contract for legal services in the above-referenced matter, Adler Pollock & Sheehan P.C. (“AP&S”) is willing to enter into a renewal agreement from January 1, 2011 to December 31, 2011 and to keep the same rates as in 2010 (attorney time is billed at the blended rate of $225 per hour).

Should you have any questions, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

JOHN A. TARANTINO

AFFIDAVIT OF BANK OF AMERICA CORPORATION
UNDER CHAPTER 17-27 OF THE
GENERAL LAWS OF RHODE ISLAND

I, Wendy Y. Jamison, on oath do hereby make the following statements and provide the following information:

1. I am making this Affidavit in my capacity as Senior Vice President of Public Policy, for Bank of America Corporation and all of its subsidiaries. Bank of America's main office is located at 100 N. Tryon Street, Charlotte, NC, 28255. My telephone number is 302.432.0956.
2. Bank of America has reasonable cause to believe that it would be required to make two or more Affidavit filings under Chapter 17-27. Therefore, enclosed is a Notice and Certification of State Vendor for Relief from Multiple Filings dated January 28, 2010 by Bank of America. We have elected a semi-annual filing schedule attached hereto as Exhibit A.
3. In all instances the contracting party is Bank of America or certain of its subsidiaries ("together Bank of America and its subsidiaries") identified herein and not the individual who actually signed a contract as such contract exists in writing.
4. Any contract between Bank of America and the State of Rhode Island would be signed by a related party, in his or her capacity as an officer of the particular contracting department or subsidiary as identified below.
5. In order to gather the information required to make these statements, it was necessary to review corporate directories to determine each of the officers who should be surveyed with respect to this Affidavit. Each such officer was requested to provide an affirmative response to a questionnaire concerning reportable political contributions and state contracts.
6. After a review of Bank of America's corporate directories, a survey was made for senior officers concerning the making of political contributions. The officers surveyed range from Senior Vice President Level and above of Bank of America and/or its affected subsidiaries. Officers were asked to provide information as to contributions made to a candidate during the reporting period January 1, 2010 through June 30, 2010. The terms "candidate" and "contribution" as used herein have the same meaning as the definitions set forth in RIGL 17-25-3.
7. In order to properly advise our officers, the questionnaire referenced in Paragraph 5 set out the requirements for the filing of an Affidavit with the State of Rhode Island and an explanation of what a state vendor relationship would be, and the obligation of the officers to report political contributions individually, by their spouse and/or minor children. The officers were informed of the legal obligations to file an Affidavit concerning this information. A summary of the responses from officers who said they made reportable contributions is contained in Exhibit B. (Contributions previously reported are included on this Exhibit to provide the required 24-month history and such contributions are noted "PR".)

8. The information supplied in this Affidavit is accurate to the best of my knowledge, based upon a best effort survey as described in paragraphs 5, 6, and 7 above. Given that Bank of America is a large organization with a multitude of complex relationships with the State of Rhode Island and its subdivisions, our survey may not have identified all Bank of America contractual relationships with the State of Rhode Island. Should additional relationships be identified prior to the next regular semi-annual reporting period, this Affidavit will be amended.

9. Based upon the research conducted, we have determined four new contractual relationships were executed with the State of Rhode Island during the period January 1, 2010 through June 30, 2010. The following contracts remain in force from a previous effective date and have a dollar value of $5,000 or more or when aggregated reach the $5,000 threshold.

10. The subparagraphs below provide details as to the contracting party, the agency of the State of Rhode Island with which the contract was made, the date of the contract, the expiration date of the contract (where applicable), the amount billed under the contract, and a description of the goods and services provided to the State of Rhode Island under the contract.

- A. Bank of America N.A. - Global Commercial Banking financed with the Economic Development Corporation 3/6/2000 for the Fidelity Bond and Fleet Bond. (original documents included in 1-1-01 affidavit) Fidelity Bond - Fleet National Bank bought a $25MM, 25 year, taxable development revenue bond (Fidelity Bond) issued by the Rhode Island Economic Development Corp, with a maturity date of 5/01/21.
- B. Bank of America N.A. - Global Commercial Banking bought a $11MM, 30 year, taxable development revenue bond (Fleet Bond) issued by the Rhode Island Economic Development Corp, with a maturity date of 5/01/27. Fleet National Bank (FNB) financed through the Economic Development Corporation, (EDC) dated 1/25/02, a 25 year, $10MM, Moral Obligation Taxable Development Revenue Bond (MOB) as Phase II parity issue from the existing MOB that Fleet issued in 1996. Maturity date of 2027.
- C. Bank of America, N.A. – Global Commercial Banking provided a 10 years, $12.55MM term loan to RIHMFC in May 2002. Fleet's share of the loan was $3.4MM. The proceeds of the loan provided $10MM for LMI housing purposes through RIHMFC and $2.5MM to Travelers' Aid to support their relocation to the YMCA building. The term maturity date is 5/15/12.
- D. Bank of America, N.A. – Global Commercial Banking provided a 5 year, $3 MM direct term loan to Rhode Island Industrial Recreational Building Authority with payout of defaulted AKL Flexotech bond issue. The effective date is 7/23/2004 and the expiration date is 7/21/2009.
- E. Bank of America, N.A. – Global Commercial Banking provides Image Viewer service access to and use of certain Fleet and/or third party computer software programs and documentation and manuals provided by Fleet to the State of Rhode Island.
- F. Bank of America, N.A. – Global Commercial Banking (“GCB”)are currently parties to the following service agreement:
- (i.) GCB Cash Management Department continues to provide comprehensive banking services to the State of Rhode Island and the University of Rhode Island, such as demand deposit services, advanced clearing services, account reconciliation services, coin and currency services and Treasury Express services. The charges for the services provided are on a per item basis related to the level of activity in each account. The State and the University of Rhode Island receive a monthly activity statement detailing these charges. Both parties have been setup on an analysis basis, leaving compensating balances in lieu of payment for services. The signed contracts submitted with the July 1995 filing to the Board remain in place for the State of Rhode Island.
 - (ii) GCB Institutional Custody Department continues to provide custodial services to the State of Rhode Island with respect to unclaimed property (securities) escheated by the State. The services are governed by an agreement dated June 13, 1989. Annual revenues for this service are approximately $22,000. A copy of the Custody Agreement was included in the January 1998 filing with the Board.

(iii) GCB continues to provide wholesale lockbox services to the State of Rhode Island and the State of Rhode Island Boater Registrations (Dept. of Environmental Mgmt.) pursuant to the Service Agreements submitted as part of the July 1998 filing to the Board.

G. Banc of America Securities (“BAS”) a subsidiary of Bank of America Corporation, has entered into four bond purchase agreements with the Rhode Island Health and Educational Building Corporation as follow:

AFFIDAVIT OF BANK OF AMERICA CORPORATION
UNDER CHAPTER 17-27 OF THE
GENERAL LAWS OF RHODE ISLAND

I, Wendy Y. Jamison, on oath do hereby make the following statements and provide the following information:

1. I am making this Affidavit in my capacity as Senior Vice President of Public Policy, for Bank of America Corporation and all of its subsidiaries. Bank of America's main office is located at 100 N. Tryon Street, Charlotte, NC, 28255. My telephone number is 302.432.0956.
2. Bank of America has reasonable cause to believe that it would be required to make two or more Affidavit filings under Chapter 17-27. Therefore, enclosed is a Notice and Certification of State Vendor for Relief from Multiple Filings dated January 28, 2010 by Bank of America. We have elected a semi-annual filing schedule attached hereto as Exhibit A.
3. In all instances the contracting party is Bank of America or certain of its subsidiaries ("together Bank of America and its subsidiaries") identified herein and not the individual who actually signed a contract as such contract exists in writing.
4. Any contract between Bank of America and the State of Rhode Island would be signed by a related party, in his or her capacity as an officer of the particular contracting department or subsidiary as identified below.
5. In order to gather the information required to make these statements, it was necessary to review corporate directories to determine each of the officers who should be surveyed with respect to this Affidavit. Each such officer was requested to provide an affirmative response to a questionnaire concerning reportable political contributions and state contracts.
6. After a review of Bank of America's corporate directories, a survey was made for senior officers concerning the making of political contributions. The officers surveyed range from Senior Vice President Level and above of Bank of America and/or its affected subsidiaries. Officers were asked to provide information as to contributions made to a candidate during the reporting period July 1, 2010 – December 31, 2010. The terms "candidate" and "contribution" as used herein have the same meaning as the definitions set forth in RIGL 17-25-3.
7. In order to properly advise our officers, the questionnaire referenced in Paragraph 5 set out the requirements for the filing of an Affidavit with the State of Rhode Island and an explanation of what a state vendor relationship would be, and the obligation of the officers to report political contributions individually, by their spouse and/or minor children. The officers were informed of the legal obligations to file an Affidavit concerning this information. A summary of the responses from officers who said they made reportable contributions is contained in Exhibit B. (Contributions previously reported are included on this Exhibit to provide the required 24-month history and such contributions are noted "PR".)

8. The information supplied in this Affidavit is accurate to the best of my knowledge, based upon a best effort survey as described in paragraphs 5, 6, and 7 above. Given that Bank of America is a large organization with a multitude of complex relationships with the State of Rhode Island and its subdivisions, our survey may not have identified all Bank of America contractual relationships with the State of Rhode Island. Should additional relationships be identified prior to the next regular semi-annual reporting period, this Affidavit will be amended.

9. Based upon the research conducted, we have determined four new contractual relationships were executed with the State of Rhode Island during the period January 1, 2010 through June 30, 2010. The following contracts remain in force from a previous effective date and have a dollar value of $5,000 or more or when aggregated reach the $5,000 threshold.

10. The subparagraphs below provide details as to the contracting party, the agency of the State of Rhode Island with which the contract was made, the date of the contract, the expiration date of the contract (where applicable), the amount billed under the contract, and a description of the goods and services provided to the State of Rhode Island under the contract.

AFFIDAVIT OF BANK OF AMERICA CORPORATION
UNDER CHAPTER 17-27 OF THE
GENERAL LAWS OF RHODE ISLAND

I, Wendy Y. Jamison, on oath do hereby make the following statements and provide the following information:

1. I am making this Affidavit in my capacity as Senior Vice President of Public Policy, for Bank of America Corporation and all of its subsidiaries. Merrill Lynch and Co. Inc. and Merrill Lynch Pierce, Fenner & Smith are now included as legal subsidiaries under Bank of America Corporation. Bank of America's main office is located at 100 N. Tryon Street, Charlotte, NC, 28255. My telephone number is 302.432.0956.

2. Bank of America has reasonable cause to believe that it would be required to make two or more Affidavit filings under Chapter 17-27. Therefore, enclosed is a Notice and Certification of State Vendor for Relief from Multiple Filings dated January 28, 2010 by Bank of America. We have elected a semi-annual filing schedule attached hereto as Exhibit A.

3. In all instances the contracting party is Bank of America or certain of its subsidiaries ("together Bank of America and its subsidiaries") identified herein and not the individual who actually signed a contract as such contract exists in writing.

4. Any contract between Bank of America and the State of Rhode Island would be signed by a related party, in his or her capacity as an officer of the particular contracting department or subsidiary as identified below.

5. In order to gather the information required to make these statements, it was necessary to review corporate directories to determine each of the officers who should be surveyed with respect to this Affidavit. Each such officer was requested to provide an affirmative response to a questionnaire concerning reportable political contributions and state contracts.

6. After a review of Bank of America's corporate directories, a survey was made for senior officers concerning the making of political contributions. The officers surveyed range from Senior Vice President Level and above of Bank of America and/or its affected subsidiaries. Officers were asked to provide information as to contributions made to a candidate during the reporting period July 1, 2009 through December 31, 2009. The terms "candidate" and "contribution" as used herein have the same meaning as the definitions set forth in RIGL 17-25-3.

7. In order to properly advise our officers, the questionnaire referenced in Paragraph 5 set out the requirements for the filing of an Affidavit with the State of Rhode Island and an explanation of what a state vendor relationship would be, and the obligation of the officers to report political contributions individually, by their spouse and/or minor children. The officers were informed of the legal obligations to file an Affidavit concerning this information. A summary of the responses from officers who said they made reportable contributions is contained in Exhibit B. (Contributions previously reported are included on this Exhibit to provide the required 24-month history and such contributions are noted "PR".)

8. The information supplied in this Affidavit is accurate to the best of my knowledge, based upon a best effort survey as described in paragraphs 5, 6, and 7 above. Given that Bank of America is a large organization with a multitude of complex relationships with the State of Rhode Island and its subdivisions, our survey may not have identified all Bank of America contractual relationships with the State of Rhode Island. Should additional relationships be identified prior to the next regular semi-annual reporting period, this Affidavit will be amended.

9. Based upon the research conducted, we have determined no new contractual relationships were executed with the State of Rhode Island during the period July 1, 2009 through December 31, 2009. The following contracts remain in force from a previous effective date and have a dollar value of $5,000 or more or when aggregated reach the $5,000 threshold.

10. The subparagraphs below provide details as to the contracting party, the agency of the State of Rhode Island with which the contract was made, the date of the contract, the expiration date of the contract (where applicable), the amount billed under the contract, and a description of the goods and services provided to the State of Rhode Island under the contract.

- A. Bank of America N.A. - Global Commercial Banking financed with the Economic Development Corporation 3/6/2000 for the Fidelity Bond and Fleet Bond. (original documents included in 1-1-01 affidavit) Fidelity Bond - Fleet National Bank bought a $25MM, 25 year, taxable development revenue bond (Fidelity Bond) issued by the Rhode Island Economic Development Corp, with a maturity date of 5/01/21.
- B. Bank of America N.A. - Global Commercial Banking bought a $11MM, 30 year, taxable development revenue bond (Fleet Bond) issued by the Rhode Island Economic Development Corp, with a maturity date of 5/01/27. Fleet National Bank (FNB) financed through the Economic Development Corporation, (EDC) dated 1/25/02, a 25 year, $10MM, Moral Obligation Taxable Development Revenue Bond (MOB) as Phase II parity issue from the existing MOB that Fleet issued in 1996. Maturity date of 2027.
- C. Bank of America, N.A. – Global Commercial Banking provided a 10 years, $12.55MM term loan to RIHMFC in May 2002. Fleet's share of the loan was $3.4MM. The proceeds of the loan provided $10MM for LMI housing purposes through RIHMFC and $2.5MM to Travelers' Aid to support their relocation to the YMCA building. The term maturity date is 5/15/12.
- D. Bank of America, N.A. – Global Commercial Banking provided a 5 year, $3 MM direct term loan to Rhode Island Industrial Recreational Building Authority with payout of defaulted AKL Flexotech bond issue. The effective date is 7/23/2004 and the expiration date is 7/21/2009.
- E. Bank of America, N.A. – Global Commercial Banking provides Image Viewer service access to and use of certain Fleet and/or third party computer software programs and documentation and manuals provided by Fleet to the State of Rhode Island.
- F. Bank of America, N.A. – Global Commercial Banking (“GCB”)are currently parties to the following service agreement:
- (i.) GCB Cash Management Department continues to provide comprehensive banking services to the State of Rhode Island and the University of Rhode Island, such as demand deposit services, advanced clearing services, account reconciliation services, coin and currency services and Treasury Express services. The charges for the services provided are on a per item basis related to the level of activity in each account. The State and the University of Rhode Island receive a monthly activity statement detailing these charges. Both parties have been setup on an analysis basis, leaving compensating balances in lieu of payment for services. The signed contracts submitted with the July 1995 filing to the Board remain in place for the State of Rhode Island.
 - (ii) GCB Institutional Custody Department continues to provide custodial services to the State of Rhode Island with respect to unclaimed property (securities) escheated by the State. The services are governed by an agreement dated June 13, 1989. Annual revenues for this service are approximately $22,000. A copy of the Custody Agreement was included in the January 1998 filing with the Board.

(iii) GCB continues to provide wholesale lockbox services to the State of Rhode Island and the State of Rhode Island Boater Registrations (Dept. of Environmental Mgmt.) pursuant to the Service Agreements submitted as part of the July 1998 filing to the Board.

- G. Banc of America Securities (“BAS”) a subsidiary of Bank of America Corporation, has entered into four bond purchase agreements with the Rhode Island Health and Educational Building Corporation as follow:
