AFFIDAVIT OF STATE VENDOR
UNDER CHAPTER 17-27 OF THE GENERAL LAWS OF RHODE ISLAND

Instructions:

Every person or business entity contracting with a state agency on or after July 27, 1993 to sell goods and services (contracting party) is deemed to be a "state vendor". Also deemed to be a "state vendor" is (a) a person having a 10% or greater ownership interest in such contracting party, or (b) a person who is an executive officer of such contracting party, or (c) a person who is the spouse or minor child of the contracting party, or of a person having such 10% or greater ownership interest, or of a person who is an executive officer of such contracting party (related parties).

This affidavit must be filed with the State Board of Elections, 50 Branch Avenue, Providence, Rhode Island 02904 by every state vendor in connection with any contract with a state agency to provide goods and/or services costing $5000 or more. If the contract is in writing, this affidavit must be filed within 60 days after the contract is executed and MUST BE ACCOMPANIED BY A COPY OF THE CONTRACT, OR A WRITTEN SUMMARY THEREOF. If the contract is not in writing, then the affidavit must be filed within 60 days from the date when the state vendor is first notified that the $5000 threshold has been reached. However, Chapter 17-27 and the Regulations adopted thereunder, permit semi-annual filings of affidavits under certain circumstances.

Every person or business entity qualifying as a state vendor (either as the contracting party or as a related party) and providing goods and services at a cost of $5000 or more shall be responsible for filing this affidavit. A state vendor who is a contracting party must file this affidavit when the $5000 threshold has been reached, even if no reportable political contributions have been made either by the contracting party or a related party. A state vendor who is a related party must file this affidavit only when a reportable political contribution has been made by such related party, and then, only if such contribution has not been included in an affidavit filed by the contracting party. A reportable political contribution is defined in question #16. The affidavit, when filed, will be a public document.

The Board of Elections is empowered to impose civil penalties for violations of Chapter 17-27.

The attention of state vendors is directed to the Regulations adopted by the Board of Elections in connection with the preparation and filing of this affidavit which are on file at the offices of both the Board of Elections and the Secretary of State.

Dear Mike:

This letter will serve as an addendum to the engagement letter of June 17, 2003 between Partridge Snow & Hahn LLP and Rhode Island Economic Development Corporation. As a supplement to the work we have performed for the Corporation in the past, we will now provide all outside general counsel services in support of the Corporation, which shall include, but not be limited to, general corporate maintenance, transactions of the Corporation, transactions relating to projects of the Corporation (as that term is defined in R.I.G.L. §42-64-1 et. seq.), public records requests received by the Corporation, open meetings act issues related to the Corporation, corporate governance issues of the Corporation and its related entities, policy development where requested, construction law issues, real estate law issues, litigation where requested, arbitrations where requested, labor, environmental, intellectual property, tax regulatory law and finance, issues relating to the administration of the Renewable Energy Fund Program ("REF Program") and other projects of the Corporation, all as requested from time to time by the Corporation. Compensation for services provided by us for general corporate counsel services shall be paid by the Corporation on a monthly basis. We shall provide the general corporate services indicated above for a monthly fee ("Retainer") of $19,500 per month. For the Retainer, we will provide approximately 60 hours per month of general corporate counsel services, and approximately 18 hours per month of counsel regarding the REF Program.

In the event the Corporation requests that we provide services that will exceed the Retainer, we will charge a blended hourly rate of $250 for services. Such fees will not be charged without your express authorization.

We also will be paid on the hourly basis as indicated above for those matters where the Corporation's legal fees are either reimbursed by any third party or paid directly by any third party. Examples of third party payment of the Firm's legal fees include when a business pays attorneys' fees as part of an agreement with the Corporation and when the Corporation includes attorneys' fees in its requests for grants or other fundings for its projects. The Corporation shall use its reasonable efforts to seek such third party payment of the Corporation's obligations to the Firm, but not in the event such effort interferes with the Corporation achieving its goals or policies or diminishes its ability to implement its projects.

Each month we will provide you with invoices for the Retainer, and a summary sheet indicating which matters have been billed within the scope of the Retainer. Additionally, we will provide you with an invoice for any matters billed outside the scope of the Retainer. Invoices are due upon receipt, and we anticipate the current payment practices of the Corporation continuing as we recognize your approval and check signature requirements may take some administrative time.

From time to time you and I will review the Retainer and the services provided therefor to determine if the amount of fees and services provided are appropriate. If not, we will mutually attempt to adjust the management of the services provided to equalize the Retainer and fees (i.e., 60 corporate counsel hours per month for $15,000, and 18 counsel hours per month for $4,500 for the REF Program) or adjust the Retainer if deemed appropriate by both the Corporation and the Firm.

Since the Firm may be providing services with respect to Quonset along with another firm representing the Corporation, if the Firm is not representing the Corporation with respect to a specific transaction at Quonset, the Corporation hereby consents to the Firm representing an opposing party with respect to a transaction at Quonset where the Corporation is represented by counsel other than the Firm in that transaction. The Firm will not take on a representation of a party adverse to the Corporation in litigation, however.

Please acknowledge your acceptance of this addendum by signing in the space indicated below. Thank you.

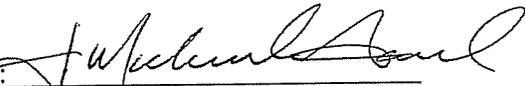

Sincerely,

David M. Gildea

AFFIDAVIT OF STATE VENDOR
 UNDER CHAPTER 17-27 OF THE GENERAL LAWS OF RHODE ISLAND

Instructions:

Every person or business entity contracting with a state agency on or after July 27, 1993 to sell goods and services (contracting party) is deemed to be a "state vendor". Also deemed to be a "state vendor" is (a) a person having a 10% or greater ownership interest in such contracting party, or (b) a person who is an executive officer of such contracting party, or (c) a person who is the spouse or minor child of the contracting party, or of a person having such 10% or greater ownership interest, or of a person who is an executive officer of such contracting party (related parties).

This affidavit must be filed with the State Board of Elections, 50 Branch Avenue, Providence, Rhode Island 02904 by every state vendor in connection with any contract with a state agency to provide goods and/or services costing $5000 or more. If the contract is in writing, this affidavit must be filed within 60 days after the contract is executed and MUST BE ACCOMPANIED BY A COPY OF THE CONTRACT, OR A WRITTEN SUMMARY THEREOF. If the contract is not in writing, then the affidavit must be filed within 60 days from the date when the state vendor is first notified that the $5000 threshold has been reached. However, Chapter 17-27 and the Regulations adopted thereunder, permit semi-annual filings of affidavits under certain circumstances.

Every person or business entity qualifying as a state vendor (either as the contracting party or as a related party) and providing goods and services at a cost of $5000 or more shall be responsible for filing this affidavit. A state vendor who is a contracting party must file this affidavit when the $5000 threshold has been reached, even if no reportable political contributions have been made either by the contracting party or a related party. A state vendor who is a related party must file this affidavit only when a reportable political contribution has been made by such related party, and then, only if such contribution has not been included in an affidavit filed by the contracting party. A reportable political contribution is defined in question #16. The affidavit, when filed, will be a public document.

Re: Bond Counsel Contract Extension

Dear Mr. Benoit:

In order that the State of Rhode Island will not be left without bond counsel pending the selection and appointment of bond counsel through a request for proposal process to occur later this year, this letter will confirm the further extension of the agreement dated February 17, 2009, with Partridge Snow & Hahn LLP (the "Firm") as bond counsel, which agreement had been originally extended until December 31, 2010 pursuant to a letter dated December 17, 2009. The scope of such services and the terms on which the Firm will perform remain the same as in the original engagement; a copy of the February 17, 2009 agreement has been enclosed for your convenience. Please carefully review this letter and if it meets with your approval, sign and return the enclosed copy to me. The extension shall be terminable by either party on ten (10) days prior written notice to the other party but in any event shall terminate on July 31, 2011.

Sincerely,

Normand G. Benoit, Esquire
PARTRIDGE SNOW & HAHN, LLP
180 South Main Street
Providence, RI 02903

Dear Mr. Benoit:

This will confirm the engagement of Partridge-Snow & Hahn, LLP (the "Firm") to serve as bond counsel ("Bond Counsel") to the State of Rhode Island (the "State") for a one-year period primarily consisting of the calendar year ending December 31, 2009 (the "Period of Engagement"). The State of Rhode Island shall have the option to extend this engagement for an additional one-year period under the same terms and conditions contained in this engagement by providing the Firm with prior written notice of the extension.

Scope

The scope of services to be performed by your Firm as Bond Counsel is set forth in our Request for Proposals to serve as Bond and Disclosure to the State (the "RFP") and your response thereto dated November 14, 2008.

The State has committed to utilizing the Firm and certain other firm(s) as Bond Counsel on its bond issues for the Period of the Engagement. However, the State has reserved the right to retain other Bond Counsel in the event this Firm and the other Bond Counsel have conflicts. This does not mean that this Firm is entitled to represent the State on any particular bond issue. Rather, your Firm acknowledges that the State reserves the right to adjust the rotation of Bond Counsel to reflect conflicts with one of the other Bond Counsel firms or to distribute Bond Counsel work equitably in the discretion of the State. In short, your Firm agrees that the selection of Bond Counsel for any particular bond issue will remain in the sole discretion of the State.

The Firm further agrees to refrain from representing any other party on bond issues for which it is Bond Counsel. However, on those bond issues in which it is not Bond Counsel, the Firm may serve as counsel for any other party who requests the Firm's representation, provided there is not a conflict with the State's interests.

Fees for Services

You have agreed to bill on an hourly basis with a per financing transaction cap. The hourly rates of attorneys and legal assistants, as agreed to in your RFP, are outlined below:

Mr. Benoit will be billed at an hourly rate of $375 per hour

Mr. Bernardo will be billed at an hourly rate of $295 per hour

Legal assistants will be billed between $90 and $135 per hour

Other attorneys will be billed between $140 and $375 per hour

Additionally, you have agreed to a cap on your fees as Bond Counsel at the maximums listed below, even if your time exceeds the cap at your normal hourly rates:

Type of Transaction	Lesser of Hourly Rates or the Fee Cap Listed Below
Certificates of Participation Issue	$50,000
General Obligation Bonds	$50,000
Tax Anticipation Notes	$30,000

You have further agreed that for any potential bond issues contemplated in our Request for Proposals the most analogous fee cap for that issue would apply. The engagement shall include representing the State, collaborating with the State Budget Office and with the State's Disclosure Counsel to prepare the State's official statement, providing tax advice, issuing opinions of Bond Counsel and otherwise serving in the capacity as the State's Bond Counsel, including without limitation handling all aspects of the closing of the sales of the State's general obligation bonds, certificates of participation and its short-term securities issued in anticipation of tax or other revenues. Fees shall include all out-of-pocket expenses associated with this engagement except preparation of closing binders.

General Advice

The Firm will provide general advice to the State as needed and will not seek additional compensation. However, for work substantially beyond the scope of work contemplated in the RFP, as mutually determined by the State and Bond Counsel, the Firm will bill at the Firm's most favorable cost. Fees for these services will be based upon an hourly basis, unless a fixed fee option is selected by the State. The State and Bond Counsel agree to execute a separate written agreement for any work substantially beyond the scope of work contemplated in the RFP. No additional fees shall be paid by the State unless such writing is executed by the parties hereto.

Extended Term

If any of the transactions are scheduled to close, but do not close by December 31, 2009 for any reason, then the term of this engagement shall be extended at no extra cost to the State through the closing of such transaction or transactions, provided, however, if by March 31, 2010, such transaction or transactions has not closed, then any further terms for extension shall be agreed upon by both parties.

Most Favored Rates

You have certified to us that all rates of compensation set forth herein do not exceed the rates of compensation charged by your Firm to its preferred public or private clients.

Billings

You will provide this office with statements for services rendered. Disbursements shall be a reasonable rate and detailed records shall accompany each bill. When billed in connection with financings, your fees will be paid at the time of closing.

Conflicts of Interest

By accepting this engagement as Bond Counsel, the firm acknowledges that it is acting as bond counsel for the State of Rhode Island. The Firm acknowledges that Rule 1.7 of the Rules of Professional Conduct sets forth the standard and the method of resolving any conflict of interest. If consent of the client is required pursuant to Rule 1.7 of the Rules of Professional Conduct, the Firm agrees that such consent must be received from both the Governor and the Treasurer or their designees. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the conflict of interest provision set forth above is not intended to prohibit the Firm from representing, or requiring the Firm to represent, any client before or against any instrumentality or department of government, quasi-public entity formed by the General Assembly or state bureau, commission, agency, board or entity of the State, including, without limitation, in any hearing or litigation.

If the foregoing is an accurate confirmation of the terms of your engagement, please indicate your agreement by signing and returning to me a duplicate of this letter.

Sincerely,

Instructions:

Every person or business entity contracting with a state agency on or after July 27, 1993 to sell goods and services (contracting party) is deemed to be a "state vendor". Also deemed to be a "state vendor" is (a) a person having a 10% or greater ownership interest in such contracting party, or (b) a person who is an executive officer of such contracting party, or (c) a person who is the spouse or minor child of the contracting party, or of a person having such 10% or greater ownership interest, or of a person who is an executive officer of such contracting party (related parties).

This affidavit must be filed with the State Board of Elections, 50 Branch Avenue, Providence, Rhode Island 02904 by every state vendor in connection with any contract with a state agency to provide goods and/or services costing $5000 or more. If the contract is in writing, this affidavit must be filed within 60 days after the contract is executed and MUST BE ACCOMPANIED BY A COPY OF THE CONTRACT, OR A WRITTEN SUMMARY THEREOF. If the contract is not in writing, then the affidavit must be filed within 60 days from the date when the state vendor is first notified that the $5000 threshold has been reached. However, Chapter 17-27 and the Regulations adopted thereunder, permit semi-annual filings of affidavits under certain circumstances.

Every person or business entity qualifying as a state vendor (either as the contracting party or as a related party) and providing goods and services at a cost of $5000 or more shall be responsible for filing this affidavit. A state vendor who is a contracting party must file this affidavit when the $5000 threshold has been reached, even if no reportable political contributions have been made either by the contracting party or a related party. A state vendor who is a related party must file this affidavit only when a reportable political contribution has been made by such related party, and then, only if such contribution has not been included in an affidavit filed by the contracting party. A reportable political contribution is defined in question #16. The affidavit, when filed, will be a public document.

The Board of Elections is empowered to impose civil penalties for violations of Chapter 17-27.

The attention of state vendors is directed to the Regulations adopted by the Board of Elections in connection with the preparation and filing of this affidavit which are on file at the offices of both the Board of Elections and the Secretary of State.

AFFIDAVIT OF STATE VENDOR
 UNDER CHAPTER 17-27 OF THE GENERAL LAWS OF RHODE ISLAND

Instructions:

Every person or business entity contracting with a state agency on or after July 27, 1993 to sell goods and services (contracting party) is deemed to be a "state vendor". This affidavit must be filed with the State Board of Elections, 50 Branch Avenue, Providence, Rhode Island 02904 by every state vendor in connection with any contract with a state agency to provide goods and/or services costing $5000 or more. If the contract is in writing, this affidavit must be filed within 60 days after the contract is executed and MUST BE ACCOMPANIED BY A COPY OF THE CONTRACT, OR A WRITTEN SUMMARY THEREOF. If the contract is not in writing, then the affidavit must be filed within 60 days from the date when the state vendor is first notified that the $5000 threshold has been reached. However, Chapter 17-27 and the Regulations adopted thereunder, permit semi-annual filings of affidavits under certain circumstances.

Every person or business entity qualifying as a state vendor (either as the contracting party or as a related party) and providing goods and services at a cost of $5000 or more shall be responsible for filing this affidavit. A state vendor who is a contracting party must file this affidavit when the $5000 threshold has been reached, even if no reportable political contributions have been made either by the contracting party or a related party. A state vendor who is a related party must file this affidavit only when a reportable political contribution has been made by such related party, and then, only if such contribution has not been included in an affidavit filed by the contracting party. A reportable political contribution is defined in question #16. The affidavit, when filed, will be a public document.

The Board of Elections is empowered to impose civil penalties for violations of Chapter 17-27.

The attention of state vendors is directed to the Regulations adopted by the Board of Elections in connection with the preparation and filing of this affidavit which are on file at the offices of both the Board of Elections and the Secretary of State.

RE: Engagement for Legal Services for Fiscal Year
Ending June 30, 2012

Dear Lou:

This letter sets forth the terms upon which we will provide legal representation to the University of Rhode Island ("URI") and the Board of Governors for the Higher Education ("Board of Governors") for the period through June 30, 2012.

Scope of Work

We will provide legal representation to URI and the Board of Governors as requested with respect to all aspects regarding tax and ERISA issues, including deferred compensation and cafeteria plans, as well as other issues related to compliance with federal, state and local tort law, regulations or ordinances.

Termination of Legal Representation

You may terminate our representation at any time, with or without cause, by written notification. Our own files pertaining to the case will be retained. Your termination of our services will not affect your responsibility for payment of legal services rendered and out-of-pocket costs incurred before termination and in connection with an orderly transition of the matter.

Partridge Snow & Hahn LLP may withdraw from representing you if anything occurs which would impair the effective continuation of our relationship, including significant disagreement concerning the proper handling of your matter.

Payment for Services

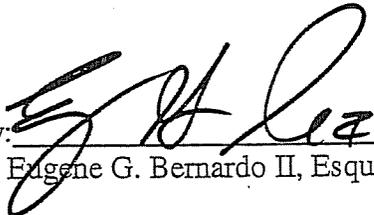

In accordance with RIGL §37-2-70(b), the rate of compensation provided herein will not exceed the rate of compensation charged by this firm to its preferred public or private clients. Eugene G. Bernardo II will be the principal lawyer and supervising counsel. His hourly billing rate will be $350. Mr. Bernardo will be assisted primarily by David C. Morganelli ($310 per hour); Kimberly McCarthy ($375 per hour); Normand G. Benoit ($395 per hour); and James H. Hahn ($395 per hour). Legal assistants will be billed at $135 per hour. These fees are exclusive of any customary disbursements and out-of-pocket expenses we may incur.

We also hereby certify that in accordance with RIGL §37-2-70(a)(4), all attorneys who are used by the firm who perform legal services hereunder will have the appropriate professional licensing, will be competent to perform such services as reflected by formal training, education, and experience in providing the required services, and that we will have the ability to perform the services as reflected by workload and availability of adequate personnel, equipment and facilities to perform the services expeditiously.

Monthly invoices for both fees and disbursements will be rendered with a breakdown by attorney and legal assistant time, a description of the specific service performed along with a daily log of hours billed. Our monthly invoice will also include normal and customary out-of-pocket costs relating to this matter. Payment for services will be due within thirty (30) days of invoicing, although we may mutually agree to extend that period if a bond closing is forthcoming and our fees are to be paid out of the closing proceeds.

If the foregoing terms of this engagement are acceptable to you, please so indicate by signing and returning the enclosed additional copy of this letter, retaining an original for your files.

Every person or business entity contracting with a state agency on or after July 27, 1993 to sell goods and services (contracting party) is deemed to be a "state vendor". Also deemed to be a "state vendor" is (a) a person having a 10% or greater ownership interest in such contracting party, or (b) a person who is an executive officer of such contracting party, or (c) a person who is the spouse or minor child of the contracting party, or of a person having such 10% or greater ownership interest, or of a person who is an executive officer of such contracting party (related parties).

This affidavit must be filed with the State Board of Elections, 50 Branch Avenue, Providence, Rhode Island 02904 by every state vendor in connection with any contract with a state agency to provide goods and/or services costing $5000 or more. If the contract is in writing, this affidavit must be filed within 60 days after the contract is executed and MUST BE ACCOMPANIED BY A COPY OF THE CONTRACT, OR A WRITTEN SUMMARY THEREOF. If the contract is not in writing, then the affidavit must be filed within 60 days from the date when the state vendor is first notified that the $5000 threshold has been reached. However, Chapter 17-27 and the Regulations adopted thereunder, permit semi-annual filings of affidavits under certain circumstances.

Every person or business entity qualifying as a state vendor (either as the contracting party or as a related party) and providing goods and services at a cost of $5000 or more shall be responsible for filing this affidavit. A state vendor who is a contracting party must file this affidavit when the $5000 threshold has been reached, even if no reportable political contributions have been made either by the contracting party or a related party. A reportable political contribution is defined in question #16. The affidavit, when filed, will be a public document.

The Board of Elections is empowered to impose civil penalties for violations of Chapter 17-27.

The attention of state vendors is directed to the Regulations adopted by the Board of Elections in connection with the preparation and filing of this affidavit which are on file at the offices of both the Board of Elections and the Secretary of State.

PARTRIDGE SNOW & HAHN LLP
STANDARD CONDITIONS REGARDING LEGAL REPRESENTATION
AND FEE ARRANGEMENT

I. Nature and Scope of Legal Representation.

A. Scope of Work and Communications. You have engaged us to provide legal services relating to various legal matters that may arise from time to time. The scope of our representation, along with any limitations upon those services, shall be determined pursuant to discussions and correspondence with you throughout our association. Any expression on our part concerning the outcome of your legal matter is an expression of our professional judgment, but is not a guarantee. Such opinions are necessarily limited by our knowledge of the facts and are based on the state of the law at the time they are expressed.

The extent of work necessary to satisfactorily resolve your matter may vary significantly from our original expectations, and therefore, we will attempt to maintain open lines of communication to keep you apprised about the status of your matter. Furthermore, as a matter of course, we will send you copies of all pertinent correspondence, documents, and other materials prepared or received by us in the course of our representation. You are also encouraged to contact us whenever you have any questions or comments regarding the status of your matter, or whenever any new facts or developments come to your attention.

B. Attorney Assignment. Customarily, each client has a principal attorney who will have supervisory responsibility for legal matters involving the client. You are free to request a change of principal attorney at any time, for any reason. Subject to the role of the principal attorney, your work or parts of it may be performed by the principal attorney, other lawyers and legal assistants in the firm. Such delegation may be for the purpose of involving lawyers or legal assistants with special expertise or skill in a particular area or to promote efficiency and cost effectiveness in the handling of your work.

C. Termination. You may terminate our representation at any time. Your termination of our services will not affect your responsibility for payment of legal services rendered and expenses incurred both before termination and in connection with an orderly transition of the matter to another attorney.

We are subject to the Codes of Professional Responsibility, which lists several types of conduct or circumstances that require or allow us to withdraw from representing a client: misrepresentation or failure to disclose material facts to us, action(s) contrary to our advice, conflict of interest with another client, or nonpayment of fees or costs. We try to identify in advance and discuss with our clients any situation that may lead to our withdrawal, and if withdrawal ever becomes necessary, we will immediately give you written notice of our intention to withdraw. In the event of withdrawal, we will cooperate with your new attorney to provide a smooth transition.

II. Fee Arrangement.

A. Fee Determination. It is often impossible to determine the full nature and extent of the legal services which your matter may ultimately require, because, throughout our representation, the facts and circumstances as known to us pertaining to your matter may change. For this reason, we are generally unable to charge a fixed amount for our services. Rather, our fee is based upon our determination of the value of our services, as well as the time we devote to your matter. In most cases, fees will be based upon the time actually expended by attorneys and legal assistants. Charges are made for time spent on items such as conference and telephone calls with you and other individuals involved in your legal affairs, legal research and analysis, court appearances, consultations with other attorneys, review of documentary materials, preparation and drafting of legal documents, correspondence and memoranda, and travel time.

Our hourly rates for our professionals vary depending upon the experience of the professionals and the nature and complexity of the matter or issues involved. Because the hourly rate is not always an accurate gauge of the value of services rendered to you, we reserve the right to adjust your bill either upward or downward to arrive at a reasonable fee. Bills may be adjusted downward in situations where the time expended on a matter seems inordinately high. In addition, bills may be adjusted upward depending upon such factors as:

- The novelty and/or complexity of the issues presented, and the skill required to perform the legal services promptly.
- The fees customarily charged in the community for similar services and the value of the services to you.
- The time constraints imposed by you as our client and other circumstances, such as an emergency closing, the need for injunctive relief from court, or substantial disruption of other work.

Among these factors, the time and effort required by your matter are typically weighted most heavily. We will keep accurate records of the time we devote to your work, and will provide you with detailed time records as a normal component of each invoice we render.

The hourly rates of our lawyers and legal assistants are reviewed and adjusted annually to reflect current levels of legal experience, and other factors. Adjustments to our hourly rates normally occur in the summer.

B. Expenses. We typically incur and pay on behalf of our clients a variety of costs in connection with our legal representation. Whenever such costs are incurred, we will carefully itemize and bill these charges. Typical costs include: long distance telephone calls, photocopying, express delivery services, facsimiles, electronic database services, travel and extraordinary secretarial overtime which may be required by the circumstances, fees for stenographers, process servers, (investigators, special counsel, expert witnesses, consultants, accountants and appraisers) and other costs incurred on your behalf. The firm reserves the right to send you vendor invoices for expenses incurred on your behalf which exceed $1,000, with a request that you pay such invoices directly.

C. Billing Arrangements. We will bill you on a monthly basis for both fees and disbursements. You agree to make payment within thirty (30) days of our invoice date. If our invoices are not paid within thirty (30) days of the invoice date, we reserve the right to accrue and collect interest on the outstanding balance of your account at the rate of 1% per month (12% per annum).

We will give you prompt notice if your account becomes delinquent, and you agree to bring the account current upon request. If the delinquency continues and you do not arrange satisfactory payment terms, we may withdraw from your representation and pursue collection of your account. You agree to pay the costs of collecting the debt, including expenses and reasonable attorneys' fees.

D. Your Right to Arbitrate. If you disagree with the amount of our fee or are unhappy with any services rendered, please contact your principal attorney to discuss your concerns. Typically, such disagreements are resolved to the satisfaction of both sides with little inconvenience or formality. In the event of a fee dispute that is not readily resolved, you have the right to request arbitration under supervision of the State Bar Association, and we agree to participate fully in the process.

Scope of Services

Per the Department of Administration's request, this document shall constitute Partridge Snow & Hahn LLP's estimated scope of services with respect to the engagement to represent the Department of Administration ("DOA") in a dispute arising out of the payment to Shire Corporation of four (4) separate checks that were made payable to Shire Corporation directly and not a separate trust account.

The scope of services is an estimate provided at this early stage of the project.

Actual cost will depend on the amount of time necessary to effectively represent the DOA with respect to the dispute and potential litigation and does not include any costs incurred with respect to any other litigation which may be pending between the above-referenced parties.

Services will be performed by Jeffrey Gladstone and Robert Taylor at the current State rate of $255 per hour. Biographies of the attorneys are available at www.psh.com.

This affidavit must be filed with the State Board of Elections, 50 Branch Avenue, Providence, Rhode Island 02904 by every state vendor in connection with any contract with a state agency to provide goods and/or services costing $5000 or more. If the contract is in writing, this affidavit must be filed within 60 days after the contract is executed and MUST BE ACCOMPANIED BY A COPY OF THE CONTRACT, OR A WRITTEN SUMMARY THEREOF. If the contract is not in writing, then the affidavit must be filed within 60 days from the date when the state vendor is first notified that the $5000 threshold has been reached. However, Chapter 17-27 and the Regulations adopted thereunder, permit semi-annual filings of affidavits under certain circumstances.

Every person or business entity qualifying as a state vendor (either as the contracting party or as a related party) and providing goods and services at a cost of $5000 or more shall be responsible for filing this affidavit. A state vendor who is a contracting party must file this affidavit when the $5000 threshold has been reached, even if no reportable political contributions have been made either by the contracting party or a related party. A state vendor who is a related party must file this affidavit only when a reportable political contribution has been made by such related party, and then, only if such contribution has not been included in an affidavit filed by the contracting party. A reportable political contribution is defined in question #16. The affidavit, when filed, will be a public document.

The Board of Elections is empowered to impose civil penalties for violations of Chapter 17-27.

The attention of state vendors is directed to the Regulations adopted by the Board of Elections in connection with the preparation and filing of this affidavit which are on file at the offices of both the Board of Elections and the Secretary of State.

Also deemed to be a "state vendor" is (a) a person having a 10% or greater ownership interest in such contracting party, or (b) a person who is an executive officer of such contracting party, or (c) a person who is the spouse or minor child of the contracting party, or of a person having such 10% or greater ownership interest, or of a person who is an executive officer of such contracting party (related parties).

This affidavit must be filed with the State Board of Elections, 50 Branch Avenue, Providence, Rhode Island 02904 by every state vendor in connection with any contract with a state agency to provide goods and/or services costing $5000 or more. If the contract is in writing, this affidavit must be filed within 60 days after the contract is executed and MUST BE ACCOMPANIED BY A COPY OF THE CONTRACT, OR A WRITTEN SUMMARY THEREOF. If the contract is not in writing, then the affidavit must be filed within 60 days from the date when the state vendor is first notified that the $5000 threshold has been reached. However, Chapter 17-27 and the Regulations adopted thereunder, permit semi-annual filings of affidavits under certain circumstances.

Every person or business entity qualifying as a state vendor (either as the contracting party or as a related party) and providing goods and services at a cost of $5000 or more shall be responsible for filing this affidavit. A state vendor who is a contracting party must file this affidavit when the $5000 threshold has been reached, even if no reportable political contributions have been made either by the contracting party or a related party. A state vendor who is a related party must file this affidavit only when a reportable political contribution has been made by such related party, and then, only if such contribution has not been included in an affidavit filed by the contracting party. A reportable political contribution is defined in question #16. The affidavit, when filed, will be a public document.

The Board of Elections is empowered to impose civil penalties for violations of Chapter 17-27.

The attention of state vendors is directed to the Regulations adopted by the Board of Elections in connection with the preparation and filing of this affidavit which are on file at the offices of both the Board of Elections and the Secretary of State.

Re: Engagement Letter – Public Finance Management Board

Dear Attorney Benoit,

Pursuant to an affirmative vote of the Rhode Island Public Finance Management Board at its August 10, 2005 meeting, this letter will confirm the engagement of Partridge Snow & Hahn LLP (the "Firm") to provide legal services to the Rhode Island Public Finance Management Board (the "Board"). This letter shall also detail the scope of such services and the terms on which the Firm will perform them. Please carefully review this letter and if it meets with your approval, sign and return the enclosed copy to me. This engagement is for the period of two (2) years commencing on August 11, 2005 and renewable for one (1) year terms thereafter at the discretion of the Board.

Scope of Engagement.

The Firm has agreed to represent the Board in connection with the Board's purposes and responsibilities pursuant to Rhode Island General Laws §42-10.1-1 et seq. and pursuant to the Rules and Regulations of the Board. The Firm shall be required to attend quarterly board meetings and all other duly called meetings and shall serve as a liaison between the Board and issuers, issuers counsel and regulatory authorities. The Firm shall also be responsible for all governmental filing requirements and recommending revisions to the Rules and Regulations of the Board and to the existing general laws.

(401) 222 - 2397 / Fax 222 - 6140

In addition, the Firm understands that it may be called on to participate in any "ad hoc" projects that the Board determines to be within its statutory mandates.

Primary Responsibility/Staffing.

Normand Benoit and Eugene Bernardo will be the attorneys responsible for representing the Board. From time to time, they may ask other Firm attorneys and paralegals to assist them as necessary to meet their agreed upon objectives, or to take advantage of special expertise. If, at any time, the Board or staff has questions, concerns, or criticism concerning the Firm's staffing or performance, the Board or staff will contact Normand Benoit or Eugene Bernardo at once to discuss the same. The Firm will determine which attorneys or paralegals to assign to various tasks so that each attorney's and paralegal's expertise and experience will be at the level most appropriate for the particular task.

Fees and Expenses.

Fees for the Firm's services will be based on the time expended by each attorney on this matter, multiplied by an agreed-upon fixed hourly rate of the lesser of (i) $200.00 per hour for all legal work performed by Eugene Bernardo and $350.00 per hour for all legal work performed by Normand Benoit, or (ii) a blended hourly rate of $260.00 per hour. Time expended by paralegals, if any, will be billed at their standard hourly rates. The Board will also be responsible for payment of expenses incurred on its behalf and disbursement charges made during the course of representation.

Fees for the Firm's services relating to any "ad hoc" project will be mutually agreed upon by the Firm and the Board or its staff prior to the commencement of any such project.

The Firm's bills to the Board will generally be prepared and mailed during the month following the month in which services are rendered.

Most Favored Nation

You have certified to us that the rate of compensation does not exceed the rate of compensation charged to your firm's preferred public and private clients for matters of the same kind.

Conflicts of Interest

By accepting this engagement as Legal Counsel to the Public Finance Management Board, the Firm acknowledges that it is acting as counsel for the entire State. As such, during the term of this engagement, the firm agrees not to represent another client in any manner in which the client's interests are significantly adverse to the interests of the State (defined as any instrumentality or department of state government, any quasi-public entity formed by the General Assembly or any state bureau, commission, agency, board or entity) in which the State is a party. The Board Chairperson shall determine whether the Firm's proposed representation of a client in a particular matter would be "significantly adverse" to the State.

Termination

The Board or the Firm may terminate this engagement at any time by providing thirty (30) days written notice to the other party. At the termination of this engagement, the Firm shall deliver to the Board all original files within thirty (30) days of the date of termination.

If the foregoing is acceptable to Partridge Snow & Hahn LLP please sign, date and return to me the enclosed copy of this letter.

Very truly yours,

Paul J. Tavares
General Treasurer
Chair, Public Finance Management Board

AFFIDAVIT OF STATE VENDOR
UNDER CHAPTER 17-27 OF THE GENERAL LAWS OF RHODE ISLAND

Instructions:

Every person or business entity contracting with a state agency on or after July 27, 1993 to sell goods and services (contracting party) is deemed to be a "state vendor". Also deemed to be a "state vendor" is (a) a person having a 10% or greater ownership interest in such contracting party, or (b) a person who is an executive officer of such contracting party, or (c) a person who is the spouse or minor child of the contracting party, or of a person having such 10% or greater ownership interest, or of a person who is an executive officer of such contracting party (related parties).

This affidavit must be filed with the State Board of Elections, 50 Branch Avenue, Providence, Rhode Island 02904 by every state vendor in connection with any contract with a state agency to provide goods and/or services costing $5000 or more. If the contract is in writing, this affidavit must be filed within 60 days after the contract is executed and MUST BE ACCOMPANIED BY A COPY OF THE CONTRACT, OR A WRITTEN SUMMARY THEREOF. If the contract is not in writing, then the affidavit must be filed within 60 days from the date when the state vendor is first notified that the $5000 threshold has been reached. However, Chapter 17-27 and the Regulations adopted thereunder, permit semi-annual filings of affidavits under certain circumstances.

Every person or business entity qualifying as a state vendor (either as the contracting party or as a related party) and providing goods and services at a cost of $5000 or more shall be responsible for filing this affidavit. A state vendor who is a contracting party must file this affidavit when the $5000 threshold has been reached, even if no reportable political contributions have been made either by the contracting party or a related party. A state vendor who is a related party must file this affidavit only when a reportable political contribution has been made by such related party, and then, only if such contribution has not been included in an affidavit filed by the contracting party. A reportable political contribution is defined in question #16. The affidavit, when filed, will be a public document.

The Board of Elections is empowered to impose civil penalties for violations of Chapter 17-27.

The attention of state vendors is directed to the Regulations adopted by the Board of Elections in connection with the preparation and filing of this affidavit which are on file at the offices of both the Board of Elections and the Secretary of State.

RE: Engagement for Legal Services for Fiscal Year
Ending June 30, 2012

Dear Lou:

This letter sets forth the terms upon which we will provide legal representation to the University of Rhode Island ("URI") and the Board of Governors for the Higher Education ("Board of Governors") for the period through June 30, 2012.

Scope of Work

We will provide legal representation to URI and the Board of Governors as requested with respect to all aspects regarding tax and ERISA issues, including deferred compensation and cafeteria plans, as well as other issues related to compliance with federal, state and local tort law, regulations or ordinances.

Termination of Legal Representation

You may terminate our representation at any time, with or without cause, by written notification. Our own files pertaining to the case will be retained. Your termination of our services will not affect your responsibility for payment of legal services rendered and out-of-pocket costs incurred before termination and in connection with an orderly transition of the matter.

Partridge Snow & Hahn LLP may withdraw from representing you if anything occurs which would impair the effective continuation of our relationship, including significant disagreement concerning the proper handling of your matter.

AFFIDAVIT OF STATE VENDOR
UNDER CHAPTER 17-27 OF THE GENERAL LAWS OF RHODE ISLAND

Instructions:

Every person or business entity contracting with a state agency on or after July 27, 1993 to sell goods and services (contracting party) is deemed to be a "state vendor". Also deemed to be a "state vendor" is (a) a person having a 10% or greater ownership interest in such contracting party, or (b) a person who is an executive officer of such contracting party, or (c) a person who is the spouse or minor child of the contracting party, or of a person having such 10% or greater ownership interest, or of a person who is an executive officer of such contracting party (related parties).

This affidavit must be filed with the State Board of Elections, 50 Branch Avenue, Providence, Rhode Island 02904 by every state vendor in connection with any contract with a state agency to provide goods and/or services costing $5000 or more. If the contract is in writing, this affidavit must be filed within 60 days after the contract is executed and MUST BE ACCOMPANIED BY A COPY OF THE CONTRACT, OR A WRITTEN SUMMARY THEREOF. If the contract is not in writing, then the affidavit must be filed within 60 days from the date when the state vendor is first notified that the $5000 threshold has been reached. However, Chapter 17-27 and the Regulations adopted thereunder, permit semi-annual filings of affidavits under certain circumstances.

Every person or business entity qualifying as a state vendor (either as the contracting party or as a related party) and providing goods and services at a cost of $5000 or more shall be responsible for filing this affidavit. A state vendor who is a contracting party must file this affidavit when the $5000 threshold has been reached, even if no reportable political contributions have been made either by the contracting party or a related party. A state vendor who is a related party must file this affidavit only when a reportable political contribution has been made by such related party, and then, only if such contribution has not been included in an affidavit filed by the contracting party. A reportable political contribution is defined in question #16. The affidavit, when filed, will be a public document.

The Board of Elections is empowered to impose civil penalties for violations of Chapter 17-27.

The attention of state vendors is directed to the Regulations adopted by the Board of Elections in connection with the preparation and filing of this affidavit which are on file at the offices of both the Board of Elections and the Secretary of State.

Re: Rhode Island College Foundation

Dear Mr. Salmo:

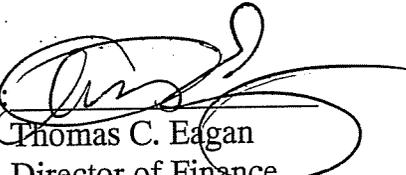

Partridge Snow & Hahn LLP welcomes this opportunity to serve you. As a new client of the firm, we are providing you with a copy of our Standard Conditions Regarding Legal Representation and Fee Arrangement. These Standard Conditions outline the nature and scope of our relationship, our method of determining fees, and our procedures for billing and payment.

We ask that you review this letter carefully and contact us promptly with any questions you may have about the Standard Conditions. Unless otherwise mutually agreed in writing, the Standard Conditions will govern our obligations to one another. We also suggest that you maintain a copy of this engagement letter for your files.

Very truly yours,

PARTRIDGE SNOW & HAHN LLP
STANDARD CONDITIONS REGARDING LEGAL REPRESENTATION
AND FEE ARRANGEMENT

I. Nature and Scope of Legal Representation.

A. Scope of Work and Communications. You have engaged us to provide legal services relating to various legal matters that may arise from time to time. In particular, you have asked our assistance in redrafting the articles and bylaws of Rhode Island College Foundation ("Foundation"). The scope of our representation, along with any limitations upon those services, shall be determined pursuant to discussions and correspondence with you throughout our association. Any expression on our part concerning the outcome of your legal matter is an expression of our professional judgment, but is not a guarantee. Such opinions are necessarily limited by our knowledge of the facts and are based on the state of the law at the time they are expressed.

The extent of work necessary to satisfactorily resolve your matter may vary significantly from our original expectations, and therefore, we will attempt to maintain open lines of communication to keep you apprised about the status of your matter. Furthermore, as a matter of course, we will send you copies of all pertinent correspondence, documents, and other materials prepared or received by us in the course of our representation. You are also encouraged to contact us whenever you have any questions or comments regarding the status of your matter, or whenever any new facts or developments come to your attention.

B. Attorney Assignment. Customarily, each client has a principal attorney who will have supervisory responsibility for legal matters involving the client. You are free to request a change of principal attorney at any time, for any reason. Subject to the role of the principal attorney, your work or parts of it may be performed by the principal attorney, other lawyers and legal assistants in the firm. Such delegation may be for the purpose of involving lawyers or legal assistants with special expertise or skill in a particular area or to promote efficiency and cost effectiveness in the handling of your work.

C. Termination. You may terminate our representation at any time. Your termination of our services will not affect your responsibility for payment of legal services rendered and expenses incurred both before termination and in connection with an orderly transition of the matter to another attorney.

We are subject to the Codes of Professional Responsibility, which lists several types of conduct or circumstances that require or allow us to withdraw from representing a client: misrepresentation or failure to disclose material facts to us, action(s) contrary to our advice, conflict of interest with another client, or nonpayment of fees or costs. We try to identify in advance and discuss with our clients any situation that may lead to our withdrawal, and if withdrawal ever becomes necessary, we will immediately give you written notice of our intention to withdraw. In the event of withdrawal, we will cooperate with your new attorney to provide a smooth transition.

II. Fee Arrangement.

A. Fee Determination. It is often impossible to determine the full nature and extent of the legal services which your matter may ultimately require, because, throughout our representation, the facts and circumstances as known to us pertaining to your matter may change. For this reason, we are generally unable to charge a fixed amount for our services. Rather, our fee is based upon the time actually expended by attorneys and legal assistants. Charges are made for time spent on items such as conference and telephone calls with you and other individuals involved in your legal affairs, legal research and analysis, court appearances, consultations with other attorneys, review of documentary materials, preparation and drafting of legal documents, correspondence and memoranda, and travel time.

Our hourly rates for our professionals vary depending upon the experience of the professionals and the nature and complexity of the matter or issues involved. We will keep accurate records of the time we devote to your work, and will provide you with detailed time records as a normal component of each invoice we render.

The hourly rates of our lawyers and legal assistants are reviewed and adjusted annually to reflect current levels of legal experience, and other factors. Adjustments to our hourly rates normally occur in the summer.

In this engagement relative to the redrafting of the Foundation's articles and bylaws, we believe that our fees will be in the range of $2,000 to $3,000.

B. Expenses. We typically incur and pay on behalf of our clients a variety of costs in connection with our legal representation. Whenever such costs are incurred, we will carefully itemize and bill these charges. Typical costs include: long distance telephone calls, photocopying, express delivery services, facsimiles, electronic database services, travel and extraordinary secretarial overtime which may be required by the circumstances, fees for stenographers, process servers, (investigators, special counsel, expert witnesses, consultants, accountants and appraisers) and other costs incurred on your behalf. The firm reserves the right to send you vendor invoices for expenses incurred on your behalf which exceed $1,000, with a request that you pay such invoices directly.

C. Billing Arrangements. We will bill you on a regular basis, normally each month, for both fees and disbursements. You agree to make payment within thirty (30) days of our invoice date.

We will give you prompt notice if your account becomes delinquent, and you agree to bring the account current upon request. If the delinquency continues and you do not arrange satisfactory payment terms, we may withdraw from your representation and pursue collection of your account. You agree to pay the costs of collecting the debt, including expenses and reasonable attorneys' fees.

D. Your Right to Arbitrate. If you disagree with the amount of our fee or are unhappy with any services rendered, please contact your principal attorney to discuss your concerns. Typically, such disagreements are resolved to the satisfaction of both sides with little inconvenience or formality. In the event of a fee dispute that is not readily resolved, you have the right to request arbitration under supervision of the State Bar Association, and we agree to participate fully in the process.

AFFIDAVIT OF STATE VENDOR
UNDER CHAPTER 17-27 OF THE GENERAL LAWS OF RHODE ISLAND

Instructions:

Every person or business entity contracting with a state agency on or after July 27, 1993 to sell goods and services (contracting party) is deemed to be a "state vendor". Also deemed to be a "state vendor" is (a) a person having a 10% or greater ownership interest in such contracting party, or (b) a person who is an executive officer of such contracting party, or (c) a person who is the spouse or minor child of the contracting party, or of a person having such 10% or greater ownership interest, or of a person who is an executive officer of such contracting party (related parties).

This affidavit must be filed with the State Board of Elections, 50 Branch Avenue, Providence, Rhode Island 02904 by every state vendor in connection with any contract with a state agency to provide goods and/or services costing $5000 or more. If the contract is in writing, this affidavit must be filed within 60 days after the contract is executed and MUST BE ACCOMPANIED BY A COPY OF THE CONTRACT, OR A WRITTEN SUMMARY THEREOF. If the contract is not in writing, then the affidavit must be filed within 60 days from the date when the state vendor is first notified that the $5000 threshold has been reached. However, Chapter 17-27 and the Regulations adopted thereunder, permit semi-annual filings of affidavits under certain circumstances.

Every person or business entity qualifying as a state vendor (either as the contracting party or as a related party) and providing goods and services at a cost of $5000 or more shall be responsible for filing this affidavit. A state vendor who is a contracting party must file this affidavit when the $5000 threshold has been reached, even if no reportable political contributions have been made either by the contracting party or a related party. A state vendor who is a related party must file this affidavit only when a reportable political contribution has been made by such related party, and then, only if such contribution has not been included in an affidavit filed by the contracting party. A reportable political contribution is defined in question #16. The affidavit, when filed, will be a public document.

The Board of Elections is empowered to impose civil penalties for violations of Chapter 17-27.

The attention of state vendors is directed to the Regulations adopted by the Board of Elections in connection with the preparation and filing of this affidavit which are on file at the offices of both the Board of Elections and the Secretary of State.

Dear Mr. Benoit:

This will confirm the engagement of Partridge Snow & Hahn, LLP (the "Firm") to serve as disclosure counsel to the State of Rhode Island (the "State") for a one-year period commencing July 1, 2011 (the "Period of Engagement"). The State shall have the option to extend this engagement for an additional one-year period under the same terms and conditions contained in this engagement by providing the Firm with written notice of the extension.

Scope

The scope of services to be performed by the Firm as disclosure counsel is set forth in our Request for Proposals to serve as Bond and Disclosure Counsel to the State (the "RFP") and your response thereto dated April 15, 2011.

The State has committed to utilizing the Firm and a certain other firm as disclosure counsel on its bond issues for the Period of the Engagement. However, the State has reserved the right to retain other disclosure counsel in the event the Firm and the other disclosure counsel have conflicts. This does not mean that the Firm is entitled to represent the State on any particular bond issue. Rather, the Firm acknowledges that the State reserves the right to adjust the rotation of disclosure counsel to reflect conflicts with one of the other disclosure counsel firms or to distribute disclosure counsel work equitably in the discretion of the State. In short, the Firm agrees that the selection of disclosure counsel for any particular bond issue will remain in the sole discretion of the State.

The Firm further agrees to refrain from representing any other party for any bond issue for which it is serving as the State's disclosure counsel. However, on those bond issues for which it is not serving as disclosure counsel for the State, the Firm may serve as counsel for any other party who requests the Firm's representation, provided there is not a conflict with the State's interests.

Fees for Services

The Firm agrees to bill on an hourly basis with a per financing transaction fee cap. The hourly rate for Mr. Benoit will be $395; Mr. Bernardo will be $350; Mr. Gallogly will be $375; and Ms. Pezzello will be $160. Legal assistants will be billed at $110 to $140 per hour. Other attorneys in the firm will range from $150 to $395 per hour. For each bond issuance, the fees will be capped at $25,000. The same fee structure will be retained if the contract is extended an additional year. The Firm will be reimbursed for any reasonable out-of-pocket expenses. The Firm will not charge for any inside copying or faxes.

The engagement shall include representing the State, collaborating with the Office of the General Treasurer, State Budget Office and with the State's bond counsel to prepare the State's official statement, issuing opinions of disclosure counsel, developing and reviewing the State's policies and practices regarding compliance with SEC regulations, providing counsel when appropriate on disclosure matters facing the State, preparing notifications to the Nationally Recognized Municipal Securities Information Repositories and otherwise serving in the capacity as the State's disclosure counsel.

General Advice

The Firm will provide general advice to the State as needed and will not seek additional compensation. However, for work substantially beyond the scope of work contemplated in the RFP, as mutually determined by the State and the Firm, the Firm will bill at the hourly rates specified above. Fees for such services will be based upon an hourly basis, unless a fixed fee option is selected by the State. The State and the Firm agree to execute a separate written agreement for any work substantially beyond the scope of work contemplated in the RFP. No additional fees shall be paid by the State unless such writing is executed by the parties hereto.

Extended Term

If any of the transactions is scheduled to close, but does not close by June 30, 2012 (or June 30, 2013 in the event of an extension) for any reason, then the term of this engagement shall be extended at no extra cost to the State through the closing of such transaction or transactions, provided, however, if by September 30, 2012 (or September 30, 2013 in the event of an extension), such a transaction or transactions has not closed, then any further terms for extension shall be agreed upon by both parties.

Most Favored Rates

The Firm certifies to the State that all rates of compensation set forth herein do not exceed the rates of compensation charged by the Firm to its preferred public or private clients for similar services.

Billings

The Firm will provide the Office of the General Treasurer with statements for services rendered. Disbursements shall be at a reasonable rate and detailed records shall accompany each bill. When billed in connection with financings, the Firm's fees will be paid at the time of closing.

Conflicts of Interest

By accepting this engagement as disclosure counsel, the Firm acknowledges that it is acting as disclosure counsel for the State of Rhode Island. The Firm acknowledges that Rule 1.7 of the Rules of Professional Conduct sets forth the standard and the method of resolving any conflict of interest. If consent of the client is required pursuant to Rule 1.7 of the Rules of Professional Conduct, the Firm agrees that such consent must be received from both the Governor and the General Treasurer or their designees. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the conflict of interest provision set forth above is not intended to prohibit the Firm from representing, or requiring the Firm to represent, any client before or against any instrumentality or department of government, quasi-public entity formed by the General Assembly or state bureau, commission, agency, board or entity of the State, including, without limitation, in any hearing or litigation.

If the foregoing is an accurate confirmation of the terms of the Firm's engagement, please indicate your agreement by signing and returning to me a duplicate of this letter.

Sincerely,
